on Stallion Reproduction, we would like to request your consideration for sponsorship of this meeting. The conference will be held in Champaign, Illinois, USA, and provides the opportunity to exchange the latest information regarding the productivity and fertility of the breeding stallion. The conference unites scientists, practitioners, and companies together from all over the world. Numerous companies providing service to the worldwide horse industry will have the opportunity to exhibit their latest equipment and supplies. Please consider joining this event as a sponsor and assisting us in welcoming established and emerging experts in the area of stallion reproduction. For further information on sponsorship, visit <http://go.illinois.edu/issr> and click on "Sponsorship" to review options and the program information. You can contact me by phone at 1-217-244-9040 or email canisso@illinois.edu anytime. Once you express your intent to sponsor the symposium a sponsorship agreement will be emailed to you by Cynthia Dillman. Once the agreement has been fully executed, an invoice will be sent for payment. Please do not send a check at this time.
